

FROM DCS TO CTO: Lunch with an Alum & the Chair

Thursday, January 31, 2013

Featuring Special Guest

HOOMAN BAHADOR CTO, Co-Founder, Konrad Group Hons. BSc 2010

Join Chair Sven Dickinson and Hooman Bahador for lunch!

This is your opportunity to ask questions and get advice from an alum who's made a highly successful jump from the department to "the real world"!

Guest biography:

Hooman Bahador is the CTO and Co-Founder of Konrad Group, a proprietary mobile, web, and social application development company. In the past few years, Konrad Group has grown to a team of over 50 employees with offices in Toronto, NYC and Chicago. Hooman is also the co-creator of two highly popular mobile applications in the restaurant and food industry: TouchBistro and DrinkOwl.

Hooman holds an Honours BSc with a Specialist Software Engineering and a minor in Economics. More recently, he has participated as a mentor in the DCS Mentorship Program, helping guide students in their academic and career development. His background as both a recent graduate and a successful entrepreneur allows him to provide a unique perspective to current students.
