

Test your ARI

(Administration Relationship Index)

On a scale of 1 to 5, 1 being Almost Never and 5 being Absolutely!,

1. My phone calls to administrators are generally returned the same day.
1 2 3 4 5
2. My requests for meetings are met in a timely fashion.
1 2 3 4 5
3. I show up to meetings that I have committed to.
1 2 3 4 5
4. The purpose of each meeting is commonly understood by both sides.
1 2 3 4 5
5. My meetings with administrators are generally productive and give me a sense that we are working well together.
1 2 3 4 5
6. My organization has a regular check-in meeting with the administration.
1 2 3 4 5
7. I have a good sense of who does what in the administration.
1 2 3 4 5
8. I have a good sense of the chain of command within the administration.
1 2 3 4 5
9. Administrators invited to my organization's events show up.
1 2 3 4 5
10. Senior members of the administration respect my position on issues, even if they disagree with them.
1 2 3 4 5
11. My organization is consulted as part of most important decisions made by the administration.
1 2 3 4 5
12. My organization has a plan for how we interact with the administration.
1 2 3 4 5
13. I respect confidentiality when it is required.
1 2 3 4 5
14. I give honest feedback to the administration when asked.
1 2 3 4 5
15. My organization knows about important decisions prior to them being announced.
1 2 3 4 5
16. My organization is perceived as representing a consistent view on issues.
1 2 3 4 5
17. My organization is respected by other student organizations on campus.
1 2 3 4 5
18. My organization has achieved success in changing the administration's course of action.
1 2 3 4 5
19. I know of at least one goal that we share with administration and are prepared to work in collaboration with them on it.
1 2 3 4 5
20. When a decision is made against my organization's wishes, I generally understand why.
1 2 3 4 5
21. My organization articulates our position on major issues in writing.
1 2 3 4 5
22. I articulate our organization's position on issues at large, formal meetings.
1 2 3 4 5