- All homework (exercises and assignments) is due by 6pm on the due date.
- Each exercise must be completed individually (see the policy on academic offences below).
- Each assignment must be completed in groups of 3-4 students (details are on the course website).
- Each term tests will be closed-book and take place during tutorial.
- For the final exam, you will be allowed one 8.5" × 11" aid sheet, handwritten on both sides.
- Late exercises or assignments will not be accepted, except if you use up some of your “grace days” (one per student for group work), or for documented unusual circumstances—see the Policy on grace days and the Policy on special consideration on the website.
- On tests and exam, answering “I don’t know” (and nothing else) is worth 20%, to encourage awareness of (and honesty about) your level of understanding. This does not apply to exercises and assignments, where you have time to ask questions and learn.
- To pass this course, you must achieve a mark of 33.33% on the final exam and a combined average of 33.33% on both term tests.

Email Policy

Please use email for personal matters only; post all other questions/comments on the course forum. Please use a descriptive subject line for all your electronic correspondence (for email, always include the course number). To help prevent your messages being incorrectly tagged as spam, please email or post from your CDF account or your UTORmail account (see www.utorid.utoronto.ca) and avoid using HTML or MIME—see the website for details. We will generally answer queries within two business days (not counting weekends), although we may take longer during particularly busy times (e.g., around assignment due dates). For your own sake, please do not rely on getting same-day answers (which we can not guarantee, unfortunately).

Academic Offences

The work you hand in (exercises, assignments, tests, and exam) must not contain anyone else’s work or ideas without proper attribution. In particular, the actual writeup of your exercises and assignments must be done in isolation from other students (for individual work) or groups (for group work) and without copying from notes or other sources. This ensures that your solution is truly your own, and that your grade reflects your own understanding of the course material. To be safe, do not let others look at your solutions, even in draft form and even after the due date. Please read the Guidelines for Avoiding Plagiarism page on the course website.
