University of Toronto — Summer 1996

CSC 148H: Introduction to Computer Science

Request for Special Consideration

This form is to be used by students who wish to be given special consideration on an assignment due to illness or other special circumstances. Requests should be accompanied by documentation (e.g., a doctor's note).

Name (circle surname): Date:

Student number: Instructor's name:

Assignment number: Tutor's name:

In the space below, briefly explain why you feel that you should receive special consideration. Continue on the reverse, if necessary.

Photocopy and complete this form, and return with your documentation to your instructor.

Do not write below this line