Position Code and Position Title

CSC110Y1F-Lead: Foundations of Computer Science I - Lead TA

Qualifications

All requirements for the regular CSC110 Classroom and Tutorial positions, except you are not required to be available at a particular lecture or tutorial time. Additional qualifications for CSC110 Lead TA include excellent organizational skills and demonstrated ability to lead small teams. Preference will be given to applicants who have previous experience as a TA for CSC110, CSC111, CSC108, CSC148, and/or CSC165. In order to be considered, applicants must include a statement of interest and CV in your application.

Relevant Criterion

Previous experience is the more relevant criterion than the need to acquire experience in respect of this posted position.

Duties

Duties are in person unless otherwise indicated. The Lead TA will assist in the development of questions, solutions, and grading schemes for course assessments, including weekly prep exercises, assignments, and tests. They will hold office hours, answer student questions on the course discussion board, and help coordinate and prepare other CSC110 TAs for doing the same. They may also help supervise and coordinate assessment grading. All TAs must have access to a computer and a reliable high-speed Internet connection to complete assigned work. TAs must be able to install course software such as Python; a tablet computer such as a Chromebook or iPad is NOT sufficient. TAs must be available for in-person course team meetings during regular business hours.

This course also requires all TAs to be available to mark the final exam in-person during regular business hours. The final exam date is determined by the Faculty of Arts & Science and may be scheduled between December 10 – 22, 2026. The exam schedule is released in November 2026. Every effort will be made to schedule and complete the exam marking within 5 business days after the final exam date. TAs may be required to complete grading January 6-11, 2027 if the exam is scheduled during the last few days of the exam period. The University is closed for the holiday break between December 24, 2026 – January 5, 2027.
