Job Posting - Teaching Assistant Position – CUPE 3902, Unit 1
Summer 2026 term (May 1, 2026 – Aug. 31, 2026)

Posted on April 13, 2026 as an Emergency Posting

The Department of Computer Science seeks ~1 Prep TA(s) for the following course:

CSC207H1Y-Prep– Software Design

Visit link for course description: <https://artsci.calendar.utoronto.ca/course/csc207h1>

Note: Prep TAs are hired to do preparatory work for Fall/Winter 2026-2027 courses during the summer term. They are not hired as regular TAs for summer course offerings.

Qualifications

Strong knowledge of Java, including inheritance rules, generics, the Collections framework, and an understanding of the Java memory model. Strong understanding of SOLID and Clean Architecture is required (please outline your background in this area in your application or email this information to calver@cs.toronto.edu). Broad knowledge of design patterns. Experience with software design using UML class diagrams or equivalent. Experience using current software engineering best practices (including code reviews, unit testing, TDD, and version control -- git strongly preferred), such as by completing CSC301 or having professional programming experience. Enthusiasm for development of course materials and assessments, with past experience developing these things preferred. Must already have, or be enrolled in, a computer science degree (or equivalent). TAs should have some availability in-person Monday to Friday, 9am to 5pm for meeting with supervisor.

Relevant Criterion

Previous experience is the more relevant criterion than the need to acquire experience in respect of this posted position.

Duties

Developing exam questions, solutions, and marking schemes. Developing new assignments, including assignment handouts, starter and solution code, and an automated test suite, and marking instructions.
