CSC290: PyCon Presentations Worksheet

Write down the names of the people at your table today:

1.	Answer these questions before you watch the recording of the talk:  The talk is given in a Python conference. What can you assume about the audience?
2.	What assumptions should you $not$ make about the audience?
3.	Answer these questions after you watch the recording of the talk:  What assumptions did the speaker make about the audience?
4.	Describe the overall structure of the talk, and annotate how much time the speaker spent on each part of the talk.

5.	What did you think the speak did well?
6.	What, if anything, would you change about the structure of the talk?
7.	How many words were in the wordiest slide of the talk? Could you read all the words in each slide in time?
Q	Did the talk have a "call to action"? What was it?
0.	Eld the talk have a can to action. What was it.