

Here's an RBM. Some of the weights and biases are shown.

If we view hidden unit  $H_1$  as a feature detector, then how would you describe what it does?

If we view hidden unit  $H_1$  as one of the four architects of the model distribution, then how would you describe what it does?